Dear Mr. Joffe or to whom it may concern,

please print the following correction on your website "jta":

in your article (<http://www.jta.org/cgi-bin/iowa/breaking/107901.html>) from April 4th, 2008 on "jta" you wrote: "In a 2004 article entitled, "An Israelization of the World?" Watzal implied that attacks on civilians can be justified: "If the USA further Israelizes its domestic and foreign policy, conflicts a la Palestine will become globalized."

The content of this article does neither imply such an impertinent interpretation nor did I ever justify in my writings any use of force or terror in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict for political ends or as a means for a solution of the conflict. I have ever condemned any violence and I do abhor the use of force in principal. My solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict was and has been the implementation of international law.

Sincerely yours,
Dr. Ludwig Watzal

Da bereits meine erste Korrektur nicht abgedruckt worden ist, gehe ich davon aus, dass man mit dieser ebenso verfährt: http://www.watzal.com/Extremisten_Tricks_Manipulationen_Diffamierungen.pdf
